Concord Church on the Move

Update....

Some of our member responded to help assist the girl Laura works with. As a result, this woman has a Christmas tree, ornaments, a few gifts, money for her savings account, cat food and treats. For someone who has never really had a good, joyful Christmas experience like many of us enjoy each year, our prayer is that she is truly blessed by the outpouring of love from our church.

Upcoming Events

Adult Sabbath School 1st Quarter 2021

Our next SS lesson is on the book of Isaiah one of my all-time favorites. Isaiah opens by explaining how God has been rejected by his people. He is seen as being “paid off” by sacrifices and offerings, a ritualistic deity that needs to be placated. But God rejects such meaningless worship. He desires an intimate relationship, not some legal covenant, a burdensome business contract. What God is looking for is a thoughtful, considered relationship based on love and admiration of the truth. He invites dialogue and reflection that leads to commitment and assurance—the loving friendship that agrees on the fundamentals of what is good and right. We find our true identity in being who we were always meant to be: loving friends of a loving God.

Come study with us! Every Sabbath at 9:30. Join us live or via Zoom. You will be blessed.

Sophia Milano, SS Superintendent.
